

Québec
2010
June 26-29 juin

Canadian Ophthalmological Society
Société canadienne d'ophtalmologie

ANNUAL MEETING • CONGRÈS ANNUEL

Canadian Society of Ophthalmic Medical Personnel

Sunday, June 27, 0755-1630
Room 202

Guest

Dr. W. Ehlers, JCAHPO President

Moderators

Gordon Carter & Marc Lafontaine

Objectives

At the end of this session, participants will be able to:

- Understanding ocular prosthetics and the issues facing patients
- Technicians roll in the pre-op assessment of eyes which will receive specialty IOL's
- Bettering one's understanding of ocular oncology and the treatment options available for patients
- New generation HVF: what the technician needs to know
- Understanding the various topography and wavefront technologies and the advantages and disadvantages of each.
- An understanding of the technician role in patient care of a very emotional and drawn out treatment process of a patient with Acanthamoeba
- Identify normal ocular anatomy with ophthalmic Ultrasound modalities.
- Identify ocular pathology with ophthalmic Ultrasound modalities.

0755 - 0800	Marc Lafontaine & Gordon Carter	Welcome & Introduction to Annual CE Day
0800 - 0900	Michael Webb	Ocular Prosthetics
0900 - 1000	Bill Ehlers	Specialty IOLs: Role of the Technician
1000 - 1030	Break
1030 - 1130	Hatem Crema	Ocular Oncology
1130 - 1215	Marc Lafontaine	Corneal Topography & Wavefront Aberrometry
1215 - 1315	Lunch
1315 - 1400	Sylvie Bertrand	Humphrey Visual Fields
1400 - 1500	Lorraine Osborne	Kaleidoscope of Care: one patient's journey through acanthamoeba
1500 - 1530	Break
1530 - 1630	Craig Simms	Ophthalmic Ultrasound