

CSOMP Annual Education Day, June 14th, 2008

Fairmont Chateau Whistler, Meeting Room Empress C

Learning Objectives:

- To understand eye movements and how to do a basic ocular motility exam
- To gain understanding of the testing that is done by technicians for an ocular oncology clinic
- To understand how an ocular oncologist uses testing done by OMP
- An understanding of pharmacology and how why it is important to OMP
- The technicians role in an ophthalmic refractive surgery practice
- Understand the genetic disorder of Ehlers-Danlos and the ocular implications of the disease
- Identifying salient features of fluorescein angiogram photos after the doctor has reported it
- Learn about current trends in ARMD treatment
- Understanding the duties of Ophthalmic Medical Personnel within the clinical practice.

0755 – 0800	Marc Lafontaine & Gordon Carter	Welcome & Introduction to Annual CE Day
0800 – 0830	Brad Wakeman	An introduction to Orthoptics for OMP
0830 – 0930	Craig Simms	The Ophthalmic Technician's role in an Ocular Oncology Clinic and Correlation of FA and Ultrasound correlation of corresponding neoplasms
0930 – 1000	Break
1000 – 1100	Sherif El-Defrawy	Pharmacology
1100 – 1200	Rich Bains	Developments in Refractive Surgery
1200 – 1300	Lunch
1300 – 1400	Pat Wyse	Ehlers-Danlos Syndrome
1400 – 1430	Gordon Carter	Understanding Angiography Interpretation
1430 – 1530	Paul Savage	Current AMD Therapies
1530 – 1545	Break
1545 – 1645	Craig Simms & Gordon Carter	Controversy in Praxis of the Ophthalmic Tech's Duties

7.0 type "A" CE credits (pending JCAHPO approval)